Grievance Redressal Cell

“Problems have solutions, bring the change & be the change”

As human beings we have expectations from life and when these expectations are not fulfilled it paves way to discontentment and dissatisfaction. Similarly, an institution creates a certain set of expectations among students, when these expectations are not met it leads to grievances. At New Horizon we prioritize student satisfaction, thus we are introducing a “Grievance Cell” where students can voice out their concerns or dissatisfaction pertaining to college activities.

Objectives

- To render a platform for the students to address their complaints, Issues and concerns.
- To develop a responsive and accountable attitude among all the stakeholders
